Hello to all our Friends and Admirers to our first issue and first kick at the cat of Xotic Magazine. I would like express thanks to my lover and best friend Lioness69 for her years of support with my crossdressing. Now we decided together to create a magazine especially for CD/TV/TG's and of course GG's. We are amateurs at this stage but I have a Bachelors Degree in Design so I do have some knowledge in the development of magazines. We hope this issue is a success so we can expand and contribute to this great community. So enjoy our first ever issue of Xotic.

As we all know, our passion for being who we want to be are considered taboo to our family and friends. Most of us hide our real selves from the world so we are not condemned for these things. Most of us could lose our jobs, lose our families and respect that we have been given from our peers. But does this make us happy? Do we enjoy hiding in the closet. Some of us are fortunate to have made a career out of desire for dressing and becoming femme. Good for those people who decide to make their dreams reality.

I too wish to make myself know for who I truly am and hopefully become successful at it. With the help of my partner Lioness69, we are developing this magazine that will enlighten, tantalize and excite our senses. At least that's we hope to achieve. Lioness is a GG (Genetic Girl) who loves me and accepts me for who I am. All of me. She also loves all the things I do, like dressing up, pantyhose, heels and having great sex. But these things are NOT possible unless we both accepted each other for our TRUE selves. And we will never judge each other. that's why we love each other, with full support and so much more.

This is our first edition of our magazine XOTIC for the month of October 2007. We hope it brings you excitement, insight and understanding of our fantasies, fetishes and why we love each other for these things. We hope the CD/TV/TG community fully embraces the idea of what we are trying to do and that we are totally amateur at this. With my education, I am not without a sense of knowledge in the print industry. My partner has supported me in everything I do and that's why I love her and brought her on board.

Remember we accept you all for who you REALLY are and welcome any suggestions, comments, photos or stories you wish to share with us. The magazine WILL change constantly till we get it right but the content will remain the same. We want all of you to feel comfortable like you are HOME.

We wish you a Very Merry Christmas and all the Best in the New Year.

XOXOXOOX Karri Blackx & Lioness69.

Hose & High Heels - Fetish and Fashion Combined by Karri Blackx

HOSE - The Passion for Pantyhose

I have been since I was 10 a great lover of pantyhose & nylons. I used to go under the tables and feel all the women's legs that were encased in this wondrous feeling fabric. My first time I wore them for myself was around the age of 12 by stealing a pair of my sisters tan pantyhose and going into the bathroom and putting them on. I was rock hard in the silky softness of nylon. This was when I experienced my first orgasm without masturbating. The simple rubbing of my legs against my hard cock in nylon made me cum all inside the pantyhose. I still can remember those days. As I grew older my passion for pantyhose grew more and more. I wore them more often and by the age of 15 I was dressing in skirts. My sexual desires and fantasies knew no bounds.

I loved everything about dressing up and wanted to experience more. By the time I was in my 30's I knew who I was and what I loved to wear even though it was in secret, until I met Lioness69. We have been friends for over 13 years but it was about 6 years ago we both revealed to each other our love of dressing up, especially in black pantyhose. We both loved seeing hard cock and pussy covered in black pantyhose. SO we decided to become intimate and fulfill our fantasies about nylon. She by far has been my greatest lover and I could not imagine life without her. She is my inspiration and my partner and our journey together in our passion has just begun. So look out world, here we CUM.

Quick Pantyhose History Lesson

- On October 27, 1938, Charles Stine, a vice president of E. I. du Pont de Nemours, Inc., announced that nylon had been invented.
- Unveiled at the site of the 1939 New York World's in front of 3000 women.
- New York World's Fair two models demonstrate the durability of nylon stockings, by playing tug-of-war.
- DuPont built the first full-scale nylon plant in Seaford, Delaware, and began commercial production in January of 1940.
- On May 15th, 1940, Nylons were sold to the general public. Four Million Pairs of Nylons were sold in the first few days.
- With the outbreak of World War II nylon production for fashion was ceased and was used for the war effort. By 1948, production of nylon stockings returned to normal.
- Hosiery took another giant step ahead with the development of spandex in 1959.
- From 1963 to 1967 as women's skirts became shorter and shorter the pantyhose fashion began to dominate women's hosiery.
- In 2004, there are only a handful of mills around the world that still produce Fully Fashioned Nylon Stockings.

Today, hosiery is available in a wide array of colors, deniers, textures, patterns and fabrics. Pantyhose are used for everything from working to exercising, casual to dressy, and are available in all sizes. And today are made with what is called Micro fibre that keeps the shape of the pantyhose intact and keeps the fabric clinging to the body and legs. This is the type that I wear personally as it is soft and silky and I look damn good in it. Just ask Lioness69 as she has seen up close and personal.

HEELS - High on Height

Once again there is another article of clothing that totally excites Lioness and myself as well as all of us in this community. That is the stunning looking Stiletto's and High Heels. These creations were a work of genius as this article made a womens leg become firm and awesome to look at. It seemed the higher the heel, the better the look. Heels could make anyone who wore them feel like a million dollars. I personally love them and I can walk very well in them for a guy. I prefer to wear 5 to 6 inch heels, same as Lioness. The spike itself is a great turn on as it shapes the shoe, and as a lot of people do need these so they can fuck them or fuck in them. Especially when Nylons are worn with them.

Fashion has changed over the years, and just recently the High Heel has come back into the spotlight since a few years ago the chunky, clunky heel was on the market. Thank goodness those are almost gone and women (and men) are going back to the classic height of the Heel.

Quick High Heel History Lesson

- Depictions of high heels dating back to 4000BC were found on the walls of Egyptian temples and tombs.
- During medieval period of Europe, the Crackow was designed, a shoe with a 5 inch pointed toe, that was eventually prohibited by law because of it's impossibility to walk in.
- In 1500, it was men, descendants of European nobility, who began to wear heeled shoes in order to keep their feet in stirrups when horseback riding.
- In 1533, it was the wedding of Italian born Catherine de Medici with the Duke of Orleans in France that brought high heels in vogue for women.
- High heels stayed in style up until the late 18th Century.
- Factories began to open in Italy and other parts of Europe in the late 19th century. The US was not far behind when it opened its first high heel factory in 1888.

Heels and Stiletto's come in all colors and designs, from ankle straps, patent leather, steal studded patterns and steel spikes, to the platform boots and shoes. No matter what style they are made in, they help make the appearance of the individual in his or her office wear or fetish wear seem model like. And it is this appearance that turns us on in whatever roles we are playing a part of. All hail the High Heel.

Sweet Dreams Are Maid

I am so tired! I have been on my feet for 10 hours straight and have been cleaning people's messes just to make ends meet! All the time I have to find the strength to keep going but I usually just say "Only more room to clean". But today I thought to myself if I do not get some kind of change I might go insane. SO like usual I walked up to the sixth floor and searched for room # 69 which was on my list of rooms to clean. It was my favorite number because I loved that position in the bedroom and it was the number of my last room of the day, so there were two great reasons to love the number.

My entire body was aching today not only from a hard days work but it was telling me it needed something. As I ruffled through the set of keys, I thought to myself I'm so sick of this crap job. There's got to be a better way to earn a living or keep ones' sanity in check, but how and where? I finally found the key to room #69 while I was thinking to myself and proceeded to unlock the door. As I entered, a strong aroma overcame my senses. I slowly crept in and quietly closed the door behind me and quickly noticed the terrible disaster before me.

All around me were men's clothes discarded like they meant nothing to this person. Just the I thought, "Why can't anyone pick up after themselves?" I wondered in disgust but also realized the reek of alcohol as I made my way farther into the room. As I walked farther into the room I was stunned and the scene I saw before me. I stopped dead in my tracks! Not only I had no idea anyone was here, but shocked by what I saw in front of me.

There on the hotel bed was a man dressed in women's clothes. He had on a black lace Nightie with black pantyhose, two pairs it looked like with black patent leather high heels, which looked to be 5 inches in height. Then a weird feeling came over me. I could not explain at that moment so I decided to slowly inch closer to this most intriguing figure.

There I also saw on the night stand, a bottle that was empty, so I picked it up and examined it. That explained the strong aroma, which filled the room. It was a vintage wine that only classy people drink. After looking at it, I gently placed it back and once again focused my attention on the figure that lay before me. I gently and softly sat next to him so I could closer and not to disturb him. Even though this was a man, he had such great legs and looked delicious in this outfit I decide he would be a she in my blue eyes. She did not budge when I placed myself on her bed. It was

"Then what I saw was a glorious site and I couldn't believe my eyes! His hardness was smothered in soft black nylon."

apparent to me that this creature was deeply asleep from the consumption of a whole bottle of wine. I then noticed I was becoming aroused at the way she appeared. Was this the answer to my life of boredom and a path away from insanity? If it was, I was dam sure I was going to explore it.

So I proceeded to hesitantly reach my hand down to touch the lustful woman before me. I then slowly caressed the black sheer softness of her leg but ever so gently as not to wake her. I slowly began to lift the soft black lace away so I could see what she had to offer a woman. Then what I saw was a glorious site and I couldn't believe my eyes! His hardness was smothered in soft black nylon. It was unbelievable that something could be so soft, yet so hard. My hot mouth began to water, as I wanted to desperately kiss and caress it. I could hold back my burning passion for this nylon beauty before me, so I began to gently bite her black nyloned cock like a lioness would to her prey, tasting her meal before devouring it. Inch by delicious inch

I took her nyloned covered muscle deep into my throat. I loved the feeling of his hardness enveloped in nylon against my wet tongue. I was becoming increasingly warm as I made my way higher up her thigh and ran my fingers gently up and down her hardness. I looked at her face to make sure not to disturb her restful slumber. She was beginning to breath louder now as was I.

It was then I could stand it no longer. I need to feel more of her, I wanted to fuck this creature in all her sheer desire. I quickly lifted my skirt and shifted my black panties to the side. I then touched myself and instantly felt my hot creamy mound beginning to drip with excitement. I began to gently caress my wetness, and run my hands all along my black pantyhose on my legs (after all she was not the only one who loved pantyhose). My other hand began to grasp at my now exposed breast in my maids outfit. I had an overwhelming sense of eroticism. I had to taste more of the black sheer hardness. So I slowly lowered my mouth onto her pulsating muscle. It tasted so good as I licked it all over.

The nylon covered all of her muscle right down to her shaven balls which I rubbed on my lips to kiss and suck as well. It was so thick and smooth, but I managed to take it all deep into my hot, wet mouth. It was amazing as I thrust this hot fucking cock in my mouth. I started

"I had never been so hot and aroused as I am tonight; I actually was the one that was drunk, drunk with desire and passion. "

thrust faster and faster on her cock, like I wanted to consume it like she did her alcohol. I wanted it fast and hard. My God the feeling of nylon cock in my mouth made my pussy throb so much I began to finger myself to relieve some of the heated passion in it. My clit was soaking wet from sucking her hardness that I decide to not only give my mouth attention but my pussy as well.

rubbing my dripping clit. I could resist her no longer. I had to feel her thickness fuck me deep inside. I had never been so hot and aroused as I am tonight; I actually was the one that was drunk, drunk with desire and passion. I also asked myself how could she be so aroused yet so drunk while passed out? WHO FUCKING CARES is all I said to myself. I just want to fuck her brains out. I removed her top layer of pantyhose and lowered myself onto her stiff muscle once again and thrust every inch of her in me. It was then I triggered a nerve from the deeply penetrated cock in my clit. Slowly at first I fucked the spot with her cock, then like a wildcat, I began thrusting on her until I exploded with complete and utter ecstasy. My juices spurting all over his black soft nyloned legs and were running all over her. I have never orgasmed before.

So ever so subtly and carefully, I began to straddle with my back to her until my wetness met her hardness. I soon as I sat on her, I felt the nylon rub my wetness, and I began to instantly grind ourselves together. I was fucking her wildly like a lioness in her prime. I could not stop thrusting on her. The passion I felt for her was unbelievable. I had never experienced anything like this, nor did anything get me this excited and wet without doing anything but lie there. I had to see her face now, so I quietly and quickly turned towards her face and straddled her hard throbbing mass once again by removing her top layer of nylon. I lied on her and kissed her lips and lifted my ass way up and down to feel her massive hardness

"I wanted her to release herself on my waiting face. Then I removed her top layer of nylon again and sucked wildly on her cock."

My whole life has been unsatisfying sex with every partner I had been with before, but with her, I did not realize my body was capable of such heat and want. I did not even know my body contained so much fluid. I just needed one more thing. As I took myself off her I once again began to suck her hard nyloned member. I wanted her to release herself on my waiting face. Then I removed her top layer of nylon again and sucked wildly on her cock. I was deeply sucking with large thrusts that became faster and faster with lust. I knew she was going to cum soon. All of sudden her member exploded all over my face, covering me with hot white delight. I was non-stop cum, flowing all over my lips and face. I could not believe the flow the fell on me. I was sucking as much as I could to swallow it but could not keep up. I took what I could and rubbed the rest on me. I would not want to waste this loving lava that was given to me. After we both orgasmed I had to make sure everything was put back the way it was, I was so exhausted now, but yet I was full of life. Regenerated to take on more crappy days, my sanity still in check, and hoping more days will be surprisingly fulfilling as this one was.

I would relive this fantasy over and over again with this exotic creature of room #69 if I needed to feel ALIVE again. I guess doing this job isn't so bad after all...

Tips & Other Fun Stuff

Make Up Tips

by Adrianna - Article supplied by Anna Christopher

LIPSTICK AND LASHES

Hi there. My name is Arianna. For those out there who have never met me, and that's definitely the majority, I am an over half century old not very good looking makeup loving TGirl. How's that for a mouthful. I have been attempting to achieve a relatively sensual look for far longer than I can remember, and have yet to see my goal become a reality. However, having said that, I have learned quite a few things about makeup, dressing to look passable and of course being naughty along the way. My favourite subject is makeup. I really believe that makeup is the finishing touch, and of course the difference between looking feminine or looking like a truck driver in a dress. Not that I have anything against truck drivers, as I am one on occasion. LOL For the most part I absolutely love to test all sorts of the newest makeup that arrives on the scene. It's almost an everyday ritual. I was asked by my very dear friend Anna Christopher to share some of my experiences with anyone out there who wishes to read through all of my ramblings. So if you are up for the challenge, read on and enjoy. I think a fitting name for my column is LIPSTICK AND LASHES. Two things a girl should never be without. I will say that unfortunately for the cosmetic companies, I have been unable to test all of their offerings, but I'm workin on it. If there is one thing I have learned though, spend your money on good quality makeup and you won't be disappointed. Well at least not all of the time. Hopefully the ideas I share will save you the disappointments.

I really believe that a significant number of girls wish to dress to be sensual, but are afraid to do everything it takes to achieve the look, as somewhere along the line they have to dress the part, then cross the line back to being the good looking guy they really are. Here's where the little things I have learned can possibly help. And yes, If you have any ideas you wish to share with me, please do so. The whole idea is to be able to use makeup to become stunning, ( not that I can ) and then within a short time return to looking, well... normal again if that makes any sense. By short time I mean getting all of the trimmings off without damaging your precious good looks, or leaving tell tale signs behind for significant others to question. Removing the clothes is easy, getting the makeup off is a whole different story sometimes.

In this column I would like to share methods of changing your facial features without any residual effects and things like wearing 3 day mascara or false nails with superglue that will not come off until you take them off, amongst other things.

I always start by shaving extremely close prior to dressing, that goes without question. Well at least my face anyways. If possible it is best to use shaving gel for sensitive skin. Some of the best products are those that women use to shave their legs. They work very well and are very good for your skin. Use a warm facecloth and rinse your skin well after shaving and your all set to go.

Makeup Removers

Arianna's pick. Equate makes a product available at Walmart store for cheap that is designed for removing makeup safely without lasting scents. It costs about 6 dollars Canadian and comes in packages of 56 towelletes. Refills can be purchased in 112 packs for about 10 dollars without the storage box. The same towelettes are available in the Shoppers drug mart brand line for about 8 dollars for 56, as well with refill packs for about 12 dollars regular price. These removers will safely remove just about any makeup you apply, usually takes about 5 to 6 towelettes to remove a full blown makeover. The towelettes will dry out if exposed to air for a period of time, so they should be stored in the plastic dispenser or in a ziplock bag. They do not remove waterproof black mascara very well, so for that I use Johnson's Baby Oil. I recommend using the Johnson's brand, as it least irritating to your eyes. It also comes unscented, which is a good thing if you return home to your significant other and you don't want to smell like you've had your face in a baby's bottom all day. Just kiddin. Actually the equate towelettes will remove the oil residue quite nicely. I have found that the actual eye makeup remover lotions that are available as well, work well for eyeshadows, but do very little for removing waterproof mascara.

Getting Made Up - Most fun you can have with your panties on.....

Start with plastic surgery, Arianna style. One of my favorite secrets is using a little known medical product called Blenderm. It is basically a stretchable almost invisible tape product that stay on extremely well and leaves no residues, costs about 3 dollars Canadian, which is cheap compared to a surgeon. It is made by 3M and is available in most drug stores. It really is the best product for the application as it does not irritate the skin. Start by cutting small strips, usually about 1.5 inches in length. Gently but firmly apply one end just above your eyebrows. Then while holding the first applied end with your index finger, gently raise the skin above your eye ( it does scrunch your forehead to a degree ) until your eye area is firm, but not too tight. Attach the upper end to your forehead with one of your other fingers and gently rub the tape down to get the best set. This will take some practice, but the difference in your appearance will be amazing for the most part. It is very simple, easy to remove and changes your appearance to be more feminine almost immediately. Play with pulling the ends back slightly to give the eyes a dramatic effect. This also

JUST A THOUGHT - If we even just TRY to fulfill our dreams, we can look at that as success. We truly fail when we do not even attempt it.

Xtra

"The lighter shade applied across the exposed full part of the breast will enhance the natural curvature appearance..."

tightens your cheeks slightly to enhance your cheekbones. If you are going to sweat profusely, you may not want to do this, but for all normal dressing times in relatively cool climates, it works marvelously. It is very important that the tape is applied before your makeup to clean, dry skin. If your skin is not clean and dry, the tape will not stick well. I also recommend you wear a wig with bangs to cover the tape if you choose to try this.

False Eyelashes; Yummy!

My favorites are the Ardell or Eylure lashes that are readily available in most drug stores and come in a variety of designs and sizes. For the most part I don't recommend using the lashes that have the rhinestones attached as they are difficult to fit sometimes. Having said that, there are still occasions where you wish to be a little more glittery and they do work ok. Choosing the right size and style you like best will take some trial and error. My favorite all round pick is the Ardell 105's. They have a nice fullness and will fit the lashline of most eyes quite nicely without trimming them. For internet web camming the 111's or 115's are definitely the choice for a very dramatic, retro glamorous effect. For those who remember, Marlo Thomas (That Girl) always wore them on her show. I think that's why I fell in love with her back then. Oh darn.. I'm dating myself here. The individual lashes Allure offers are very sexy, but take significantly more time to apply them and remove them. I would recommend you only use the latex or water based adhesive to apply them as it is easy to remove and is usually non irritating. ( unlike me )

There is a more permanent adhesive available, but be very careful with it. It is similar to the liquid bandage products on the market and has a more chemical adhesive base. Usually using the permanent adhesive will result in pulling your natural lashes out when you remove the false individuals, so I personally wouldn't use it. One thing to remember about the latex based products, is that they will freeze at certain temps, and then will separate internally and basically be unusable. Be careful where you store the adhesive.

Base Makeup: Arianna's Pick Revlon 16 Hour Colourstay

The foundation or base makeup you use is just that. The foundation to your stunning good looks. Over the years I have tried just about every different kind there is and I loved most of them. My current favorite and the one I use and enjoy everytime I do, is the Revlon 16 hour Colourstay. It truly will stay just about that long and provides excellent coverage and beard hiding characteristics. I should back up for a sec. I would recommend using Revlon Colourstay concealer or A concealer to cover your very few imperfections prior to applying your makeup. The nice thing about the Revlon products is they are readily available at most drug stores, are relatively inexpensive and work very well. Besides they smell sensual too. The 16 Hour Colourstay liquid goes on like a dream and sets to a virtually flawless finish in a very short time. I have not experienced any runs in makeup using this product, even when things get a little warm so to speak. Works good if you are going dancing. I find with this makeup, the application of powdered blush goes on very well and stays there quite nicely. If you want to add a little extra fun, open the bottle and give it a little spritz of your favorite perfume and shake vigorously.

The bottle that is. Every move your facial expressions make will delicately release the scent, and you will never have overpowering perfume. Yes Anna.... I know..... Ahem..... The nice thing about Colourstay is that it sets to a very flawless finish that blends over your pores very nicely and doesn't leave a dotted finish on your face, when you are being closely inspected. It also finishes nicely so you don't look like you've applied your makeup with a spatula. Geez... I'll have to try this again..... My favorite colour is NUDE. Or is that my favorite thing to where.... OK OK I'll get on track again. Oh by the way.. If you shave your chest, apply your makeup all the way down and around your neck as well as across your cleavage if you plan to be wearing something low cut. I would use a slightly lighter colour on the side of the breast that shows, but not in the center of the breasts. The slight darkened shade between the breasts will enhance the appearance of size quite dramatically. The lighter shade applied across the exposed full part of the breast will enhance the natural curvature appearance when you lightly dust them with glistening body powder, which you would apply up from about 2 inches from the center of your chest, to your collarbone, along the natural curvature. Warning: This has been known to cause certain people to have problems keeping their hands off their breasts.

Eyeshadows: Arianna's picks Lise Watier or Pupa loose powder shadows.

Eyeshadows are so much fun. Over the years I have tried almost every type there is and my favorites are always the loose powder types. If I remember, I think I even tried chrome nail polish to highlight my angelbrows. It was no fun to get off and my eyes glowed in the dark for days, so I don't recommend you do that. Do not be afraid to spend a little more on eyeshadows as it is well worth the extra few dollars to go from chalkdust and talcum powder to very sensual shadows that will give the desired glamorous eyes you seek. Of course I have a penchant for the metallic varieties as I like the glitz and glamour look. A very simple test is to sample the shadow with your finger tip and then rub it vigorously with another finger such as your thumb and work it into your skin. If the colour disappears the most likely the shadow is does not contain the better quality colour pigments to blend beautifully and stay looking good for extended periods of time. Of the cream variety the best I have found to date have been the Elizabeth Arden eye highlighting creams, but I have only seen them in 2 colours. Two of the best brands that I dearly love are, Lise Watier line and the Pupa extra pearl shadows. Both of these lines run about $16.00 cdn per shadow, will last for a quite some time and are available at common cosmetic counters such as London Drugs and some Shoppers Drug Marts. Lise Watier has recently released a new liquid to powder shadow that is to die for and comes in about 6 divine shades. The beauty of the loose powders is that they give you the added bonus of being able to blend colours to achieve your own personal favorites without owning a too many of them, and they will blend on your eyelids sensually to look like a professional makeup artist did your makeover. The other advantage of loose powders with pearlescence is that they can be used for highlighters for your cheeks and lips if you so desire.

Lise Watier makes a really cool product which is a liquid called Metamorfix you can blend with the loose powders to line your lids for a divine liquid eyeliner look and help keep your eyeshadow in place for extended periods of time such as all night.... oops. I have never experienced any irritations to the eye area when using any of these products. It is best to choose colours that enhance the natural colour of your eyes of course. One of the benefits of loose powders is that should you apply too much of a given colour, you can use a large brush and gently brush away the excess, or to soften the overall look use your cheek brush at the end to very delicately brush the entire eye area with a light highlighting colour to blend and soften the whole application and give you eyes a very demure look. Typically I will start with the darkest shade applying it on the lid starting about 1/3 of the way out from the inside and gently widening the triangle to the outside of the lash area slightly to about the width of an applicator.

" I find lipstick will bring out the sensuality of lips and make them extremely inviting to say the least."

I then use a lighter colour on the inside third of the eyelid and cover the lid always blending from the inside out. I then take a slightly darker colour and starting at the inside of the lash line very delicately apply it upwards at an angle to meet the eyebrow, and then follow the eyebrow to the outside edge. My final application is typically a white pearlescent Lise Watier shadow that I apply from near the inside edge and fill in the angelbrow area above the eyelid to the outside, with the majority being near the outside edge. This tends to give the eyes a very full and wider look that is good for evenings out. Of course every one will do it differently depending on your natural features, but with a little practice and time you will very easily be achieving the desired look.

Mascara: "Blackest Black"

Mascara says look into my eyes, and you'll follow me anywhere.. Mascara is really the finishing touch to your sensual application of eyeshadows. There are virtually too many types to try them all, but the following should keep ya busy for a couple of years. Basically there are 2 primary types of mascara, the waterproofs and the water removable types and both come in a variety of shades and lash enhancing capabilities. Some of the better quality mascaras are not really the most expensive ones. My favs are Loreal, Revlon, Lancome and Maybelline XXL. Some of the newer types are a dual application process that you apply a base coat to extend your natural lashes and then the colour coat to bring out the beauty. Revlon makes a wonderful dual application mascara in the Colourstay line that has a wonderful large applicator and will remove well with the makeup remover pads with a little gentle rubbing. I usually go for the mascaras that do not clump when they are applied, but any of them will do that to a degree if MISS-applied. Best to apply mascara in delicate strokes and twirl the brush gently as you stroke it across your lashes from the eye area outward. Apply several very light coatings rather than one heavy one to get the best effect. Some of the mascaras actually do enhance the curl of your lashes and lengthen them. For those who really want to live on the wildside, try the Revlon Colourstay 3 day lash tint. Yes, 3 day.... If applying mascara is erotic, it could be only your lashes that are extended and curved upwards when you apply this sensual mascara. Just kiddin.... The Loreal line is excellent and comes with virtually any enhancing features you desire. My favs are the Voluminous, Panoramic Curl and Double Extend types in Blackest Black. Note: The Revlon Colourstay 3 Day, Maybelline XXL and Maybelline waterproof Sky High Curves will require the use of baby oil usually to fully remove them, so if you are going to use these make sure you have some on hand or you may just have a telltale sign left behind. Do not share your mascara with anyone, as your eyelids are very very sensitive to the introduction of foreign cells, and it is just not a good practice for hygienic reasons.

Lipstick: Of the 100 or so I like

My favourites are of course the long lasting types with good solid colours. I spend more money on Lipstick than I do on Tim Horton's coffee, and that's not a paltry sum. OK OK I'm addicted to delicately shaded soft sensual lips. I love all the shades and depending on how I feel, I find lipstick will bring out the sensuality of lips and make them extremely inviting to say the least. After all.... Whats better than a kiss to remember or to wake in the morning with absolutely perfect lips. My favs are Revlon Overtime Colourstay, Christian Dior, Cover Girl Allday, Lise Watier Gouramond, Loreal Endless Kissable and Lancome Extreme wear. The beauty of the liquid lipsticks is that they dry quickly to a perfect base finish to which I apply a lighter top coat of some descript, usually in a frosted pink shade such as CoverGirl Rose Quartz.

The newly released line of Loreal Endless kissables are divine in that they go on like butter, supply beautiful endless colour and dry on your lips within seconds, and they have a delicate scent you will remember for a long time. It would appear that the US version of the Endless Kissables has a more desirable fragrance and slightly different texture than the Canadian version. Both are excellent products and I highly recommend them. What more could a girl ask for? And yes, the colour stays on your lips and does not transfer to your partners breasts.. oops or wine glasses as the night wears on. If you really want to indulge try the Lancome Extreme wear as it performs as flawlessly, but is about 3 times the price at $32.00 cdn. ** Warning: Lipsticks that are scented may invoke deep erotic memorable responses when worn, as they delicately release their inviting scent with each movement of your lips. Having said that... With the liquid lipsticks such as Revlon Overtime Colourstay and the Covergirl Allday, I like to give them a little spritz of my favorite perfume in the container to make them absolutely irresistible. You will quite simply want to leave this lipstick on forever.... An excellent combination is to apply the base of Revlon Colourstay in "Stay Current", let it dry completely and top it off with the Covergirl frosted long wearing lipstick in Rose Quartz. One may also use some of the loose powder shadows mentioned to really enhance the frosted effect.

"If you wish to take years off your age. This will give the appearance of a much more youthful look and say, 'I'm vital and fun to be with.'"

Glosses are fine, but normally I have found they tend to bleed after while and your lips wont look as inviting. An interesting point is for those who smoke... ahem... for whatever reason the shades that are dry on the lips typically allow one to inhale or french inhale in a more seductive manner at the smoke plume will stay tighter as it exits and re-enters. I believe the gloss types of lipsticks tend to alter the friction factor of the flow of smoke over the lips and dissipate the plume. Yes, I know that sound bizarre, but it appears that way. One of the reasons I like the aforementioned lipsticks is that they have divine solid colour, stay in place for days.. jus kiddin, only hours and will easily wipe off with the remover pads without staining your actual lips. Staining lipsticks being such that one has to almost rub your lips raw to get it off without leaving it's mark. I can't think of anyone who really likes having sore chapped lips for days, and look like you been kissing a horses derier. The fun is to have it all, then return to your handsome self without inflicting body damage. For absolutely divine soft lipsticks that leave behind a signature of your sensual lip shape, I recommend the Lise Watier Gouramond lipsticks or the Christian Dior. Some of the Christian Dior lipsticks will stain and are usually twice the price, so I would take a serious look at the Lise Watier line. The Lise Watier line is made for beautiful women such as you.... Its so easy to smile with lipstick on.

Blush: Now there's something I do all the time when someone sees me made up.

Blush is somewhat trickier but very important to finish with when you desire a feminine look. Blush should say, "Look, I'm feeling a little warm for you." As opposed to, "I'd make a good clown". There is a real art to application of blush. If applied properly it will absolutely bring out stunning changes in your appearance. I usually apply the darker shade in the more hollow area of the cheeks and very gently blend it back and up into my hairline, and again apply small amounts with every stroke and blend it well to soften the look. For the base blush I quite often use some of my Loreal Kissable lipstick and blend it in with my fingertip. This blush will stay looking perfect until you take it off, it smells irresistible and will not typically rub off on a phone or your partner. I then would follow with a slightly lighter powder shade across the same area to really soften the look and blend it well. Dust the underside of your jawline with the darker powder, as well as the sides of your nose and just between your eyes moving up and out in a "Y" shape to achieve an "I'm delicious look". Finish with a light dusting of a more shimmery powder on your upper cheekbones and moving out past the base of the eyes to your hairline, if you wish to take years off your age. This will give the appearance of a much more youthful look and say, "I'm vital and fun to be with". Very lightly brush the remnants of the light shimmery powder down the center of your nose line to make the nose look much smaller and narrower. Again, apply very small amounts with each stroke and blend it well. Use a large soft brush designed for blush to soften the application. If the base is applied too heavily, you can soften the look with a very light application of base makeup ovetop or use a powder makeup and gently dust the area to help cover it. Blush and shimmery highlighter may also be used in the breast area to enhance the size of ones bodacious tata's. Apply the darker blush in between the breasts and down around the breasts curving outward, then use the shimmery powder starting at the full inside part of the breast and moving up and out in a circular motion to the collarbone.

Nails: Glamorous, Glimmery, Gorgeous...

This is an area that significant experimentation has taken place with I believe reasonable results. Long perfect painted nails are irresistably inviting and absolutely feminine. With the right products one can have long beautiful false nails for a night without the worries of having them come off in your wineglass or partners hair. To achieve a perfect paint job, you can paint them prior to applying them by simply using a loop of Scotchbrand invisible tape made into a loop with the adhesive on the outside and stuck to a stiff paper or cardboard. Apply the nails you wish to paint to the tape, and paint away with your favorite colour. Apply light coats and allow to dry very well prior to applying the second coat. Finish with a clear top coat to give the colour better depth and protection. For the more experienced, you can paint your nails once they are applied, but this takes a little longer as they have to dry prior to really using them. Adhesive nail tabs can be used to apply your nails, but are somewhat hard to find and don't hold as well as they should.

One of the easiest ways to have perfect nails for a night that do not come off until you take them off is to apply a thin coating of lipstick sealant to each nail and allow to dry prior to putting on the nail using "Super Glue" type nail glue. Past experience has shown that if time permits for drying, usually a couple of minutes more, that 2 coats of lipstick sealant will make removal easier. Once the sealant is dry, apply the super glue in just a light coating and hold each nail in place for 90 seconds to get the desired bond. Too much adhesive and you'll have your fingers stuck to your forehead before you know it, so be careful. The secret to easy removal without damaging you natural nails is the coating on the nails prior to application of the superglue adhesive. Nails applied using this method will usually pry off with just a little work, but will not fall off during the normal course of your feminine time. Once the nails are removed there is usually very little residue on your nails, and what little there is, is easily removed.

I have used liquid bandage type materials as a base coat and these seem to perform well. The best to date has been the Johnson and Johnson brand with the applicator and activation swabs. It is easy to apply and takes about a minute to set. The lipstick sealant takes approximately 15 - 30 seconds to dry. Chrome nail polish is very fun and the best I've found to date has been the Revlon. My favorite is Chrome Blossom Pink, and the chrome colours turn heads when worn under nylons or the sheets. OK That's more information than you needed. Have some cotton swabs on hand with nail polish remover to wipe the edges of your nails to get the polish off completely. If you apply your toenail polish just before you stand at the mirror and shave your chest, it will be dry by the time you are ready to apply your makeup. ** I recommend you only file your nails to maintain the length. Avoid the use of metal clippers or files, as they are quite damaging to your natural nails. ** It takes the average person 6 months to grow a nail back if you damage it, so treat them with respect and don't chew them. If you feel the need for Calcium in your diet, use tablets.

I hope some of the things I have presented here, help make you makeup sessions more fun. If there is anything you would like me to write about or test in the makeup world, just drop me a line and I shall be happy to try it, providing my extremities don't fall off after application. There are certain things I won't do for any girl.

Pantyhose Passion!

In this day and age of internet websites, the ease of shopping online for personal items is at its all time highest there are many of them that are out just to claim a quick buck or two. A vast number of them are so helpful in our daily lives, most of use could not live without them. Then of course there are the websites that dedicate themselves to our special wants and needs which could be hidden deep with in us that we need to have some connection to them. One of these needs and of course passions that certain websites have dedicated themselves too is PANTYHOSE.

When I first got on the internet I thought I was a minority of people who's desire and lust for pantyhose became a part of their lives. Boy was I wrong when I did a search and found over a million sites especially directing people for this fetish. Of course not all of these sites were about pantyhose, some were just links to have click onto and find that it was a trick so you can get spammed by POP-UP hell. We know how those sites can wreck havoc on your computers and have spyware and other malice programs hidden on the backgrounds.

Then there are the true sites that really feed the lust of pantyhose to a new heights and offer the hassle of going to a video store to look for such a video if it is even in. I will quickly run over what I think personally are the Top 3 Pantyhose internet sites on the web today in reverse order. Of course we know this is only from my point of view.

#3 - TransPantyhose www.transpantyhose.com

This site is amazing when it comes to seeing shemale beauties in nylon. All of their models are stunning and have tremendous bodies. But of course when you look at what they have to TRULY offer, it really sticks out. Literally. These shemale's and their hard cocks in all colors of pantyhose are a thing of beauty to behold. I personally love the look of hard cocks in nylon and I have always been amazed how something so soft could have something so hard in them.

This website contains amazing photographs of models in great poses and situations. But above all the movies they have to offer are worth the price they charge for them. Great clarity and lighting in every movie, and even though the scripts are not the greatest, the action you see is well worth it. This site has been operational for many years and has a very strong following, especially in our community and admirers.

Home Page

It does offer a quick tour of their site and offers a vast collection of pictures that are high quality and gives you a complete run down of what services are offered when you get your membership to the site. The content is updated weekly so there is always something new to feed the hunger of pantyhose and shemales. It is a secured website for easy payment options and it is very affordable to the skirt pocket so you do not lose any of your makeup, dress and nylon money for those shopping sprees you still have planned.

#2 - Pantyhose-X www.pantyhose-x.de

Pantyhose-X is my second favorite for it's dedication to the pantyhose and nylon fetish industry. Even though it is just women in pantyhose (BUMMER), it still offers and excellent erotic adventure in to world of glorious fabric we all love. I get excited in my pantyhose every time I look at this site and wish I looked as good as all these girls did. But hey. I love me and I hope others do too.

This German based website is in the 9th year with Pantyhose-X online dedicated to women in stockings and pantyhose which have made them an online favorite pantyhose magazine worldwide.

They present a new series weekly which you can be informed by their update-calendar that you can download for free at the site. Our update-calendar keeps you informed.

Once becoming a VIP member you have access to see more than 35.000 photos in high resolution and see the fine details of the nylonic fabric that encases each models delicate smooth skin.

All models here are amateurs, yet the are simple stunning to look at and could pass as professionals easily. They off a few samples of their high quality DVD movies and photos to those having a peek. Superb craftsmanship is put in every creation from Pantyhose-X. I recommend you have a look and judge for yourself.

Who I'd like to meet: Ideally, you're more beautiful than me as a girl but not as bonkers as me as a guy! not much to ask really, is it?;-) Nerdy eccentricities are encouraged though nerdy looking is not. So please get to the hair loosening, glasses removing "oh Miss Jones!" moment as quick as possible. You'll possess a natural flair for looking devastating in a chic suit and ankle strap shoes, chinnon optional.

I'm not averse to the more mature, sophisticated woman, with a wealth of experience, as I find a sparkling witt keeps it's glimmer of allure longer than ones tantalizing smile. I adore cuddling and kissing all night, but it's costing a fortune in dry cleaning for my pillows! and the chaffing gets a bit much!! so please come fill my warm embrace with your soft silky self!

Christina Yolanda Pantyhose Princess

Christina has a huge fetish for black pantyhose, and as you can tell by her photos, she has the body and legs for it. She is a 35 year old crossdresser who is seeking to find her soul mate when it comes to this passion. She loves her high heel sand her short skirts. Black is her favorite color in nylons and I do not think any other color would look any better on her.

About me: I'm a Hispanic 6'0" 230 lbs sexy girl I live at El Paso, Texas and as you can see I love black pantyhose and/or black stockings. I love seeing other crossdressers wearing and showing off their feet and legs in black nylons. my favorite song is "yolanda" by Reality. Strangely however, my favorite sport is football. hehe.

My DISLIKES is men not dressing up for me.
